The existing view to the northeast from Kay Observation Point 7, located on eastbound Hobsonway, southwest of the plant site and immediately north of the residence located on the upper slope of the mesa. The existing structures at KOP 2 are visible in the lower right of the photograph.

The same view showing a photomontage of the Blythe Energy Project.